ARTICLE V – Effective Date:

The effective date of the limited liability company doing business in Florida shall be April 1, 2004.

ARTICLE VI – Indemnification of Managing Member:

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company will indemnify and hold the Managing Member harmless from and against all expenses (including, without limitation, attorney's fees and costs in all trial, appellate and collection proceedings) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding, whether civil or criminal, in which he is a party. The Company may maintain insurance to protect itself and the Managing Member against all fines, liabilities, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, whether or not the Company would have the legal power to indemnify him directly against such liability. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Members and Company hereby waive and release the Managing Member from any and all claims and liabilities by reason of adverse results to the Company or any act or failure to act on the part of the Managing Member in the performance of any duty so long as the Managing Member was proceeding in good faith to promote the best interest of the Company and is otherwise entitled to indemnification.
