8. The Company, with the unanimous written consent of the members, shall have the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Organization or any amendments hereto. Further, the power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Company's limited liability company regulations shall be vested in the Company's members.

9. The company shall indemnify any and all of its members, officer, employees or agents or former officers, employees or agents or any person or persons who may have served at its request as an officer, employee or agent of another company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise in which it owns an equity interest or of which it is a creditor, to the full extent permitted by law. Said indemnification shall include, but not be limited to, the expenses, including the cost of any judgments, fines, settlements and counsel's fees, actually and necessarily paid or incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, and any appeals thereof, to which any such person or his or her legal representative may be made a party or may be threatened to be made a party, by reason of he or she being or having been an officer, employee or agent as herein provided. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any officer, employee or agent may be entitled as a matter of law or which he or she may be lawfully granted.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Organization in his representative capacity as the duly appointed representative of all of the members of this Company on this 14 day of April, 2004. In accordance with Section 608.408(3), Florida Statutes, the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true.

Ted Klein,
Member Representative
