ARTICLE VII

Membership Interest Votes

Each percentage of membership interest has one vote on each matter on which the membership interest is entitled to vote. Cumulative voting is allowed. With respect to any matter, other than the election of the Managers, for which the affirmative vote of the holders of a specified portion of the membership interest entitled to vote is required by the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, and notwithstanding that such Act may require a portion of the membership interest entitled to vote that exceeds that specified in this Article, the act of the Members on that matter shall be the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the membership interest entitled to vote on that matter, rather than the affirmative vote otherwise required by such Act.

ARTICLE VIII

Company Actions

(a) Any action required by the State of Florida Limited Liability Company Act, and any amendments to that act, shall be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members of the Limited Liability Company.

(b) Or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members of the Limited Liability Company, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holder or holders of membership interest having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to take such action at a meeting at which the holders of all membership interest entitled to vote on the action were present and voted.

(c) Any such written consent must be dated, signed and delivered in the manner required by, and shall be effective for the period specified by the State of Florida Limited Liability Company Act, and any amendments thereto, and the taking of any such action by written consent shall be subject to satisfaction of all applicable requirements of such Act.

(d) Prompt notice of the taking of any action by Members without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those Members who did not consent in writing to the action.

ARTICLE IX

Indemnification

(a) The company shall indemnify every manager, and the manager's heirs, executors and administrators, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the manager, as well as against any amount paid upon a judgment in connection with any action, suit, or other proceeding, civil or criminal, to which the manager may be made a party by reason of having been a manager of this limited liability company.

(b) This indemnification is being given because the manager(s) will be requested by the company to act for and on behalf of the company and for the company's benefit.

(c) This indemnification is not exclusive of other rights to which the manager(s) may be entitled.

(d) The manager(s) are entitled to the fullest indemnification allowed by the current law or as the law may be amended after the adoption of these articles.

(e) A manager shall be liable to the company for the following actions:

(1) Any breach of his or her duty of loyalty to the company, or to its members;

(2) An act or omission that was taken in bad faith and which constitutes a breach of the Manager's duty to the company by an act that is grossly negligent, malicious, or intentional, as those terms are defined at law;

(3) A transaction in which the manager benefits to the detriment of the company or its members.

(4) An action for which the manager is liable at law and for which an indemnification is not allowed.

ARTICLE X

Purpose

The purpose for which this limited liability company is organized is to transact any and all lawful business for which limited liability companies may be organized under the laws of the State of Florida, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) To carry on any business or any other legal or lawful activity allowed by law;

(b) To acquire, own, use, convey, and otherwise dispose of and deal in real or personal property or any interest in such property;

(c) To do such other acts as are incidental to the foregoing or desirable in order to accomplish the purpose for which the company was formed;

(d) To have and exercise all rights and powers that are now or may hereafter be granted to a limited liability company by law.

The foregoing shall be construed as objects, purposes and powers, and enumeration thereof shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the powers hereafter conferred on this limited liability company by the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE XI

Right To Continue Business

In the event of the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in Cibus, Pax et Vinum, L.L.C., the remaining members have the right under the operating agreement to continue the business of Cibus, Pax et Vinum, L.L.C.

ARTICLE XII

Treatment as Partnership

Cibus, Pax et Vinum, L.L.C. is intended to be treated as a partnership for purposes of federal income taxation.

ARTICLE XIII

Certificate of Membership; Transferability of Certificate

A member's interest in Cibus, Pax et Vinum, L.L.C. may be evidenced by a certificate of membership interest signed by Manager/Member, which may be assigned or transferred. The right to assign or transfer a member's interest in Cibus, Pax et Vinum, L.L.C. is limited by the provisions of the Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

Capital and Additional Members

Members shall be required to make additional contributions to the capital of the company. Additional members shall be admitted upon the written consent of all the members. There are no preemptive rights on behalf of any Member.
