7. Admission of Additional Members. Additional Members will be admitted only pursuant to the terms of the operating agreement to be entered into by the Members of the Company, or upon such other terms as are unanimously agreed to by all Members entitled to a dividend upon dissolution or liquidation.
8. Additional Liability of Members. Additional capital contributions of the Members may be required, but only upon the vote of a majority of Members pursuant to the terms of an operating agreement to be entered into between the Members of this limited liability company.
9. Continuity. The remaining Members of the limited liability company will have the right to continue the business upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a Member or occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued Membership of a Member in this limited liability company. The return of capital and the distribution of profits shall be determined from the limited liability company's books, as of the effective date of withdrawal, based on the provisions of the regulations, and paid as soon as practicable without diminishing the prospects of the limited liability company's ventures and subject to the limitations of Florida law.
10. Management. The business of the limited liability company shall be reserved to and conducted under the exclusive management of its Managers according to the provisions of an operating agreement to be entered into between the manager(s) and the members of the Company.
