IN RE: THE MARRIAGE OF

LINDA BERNARD,

Petitioner/Wife,

and

SAMUEL BERNARD,

Respondent/Husband.

---

FINAL JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

THIS CAUSE having come on to be heard for Final Hearing on September 14, 2007 on the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage filed by the Petitioner/Wife and the Counter-Petition for Dissolution of Marriage filed by the Respondent/Husband and the Court having heard testimony of the parties and their witnesses and having corroborated the Respondent/Husband's residency through his driver's license and having examined the Court file and having determined that this cause is at issue, it is thereupon,

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED, as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter hereof.
2. The marriage between the parties is hereby dissolved a vinculo matrimonii.
3. The parties were married on July 14, 1998 and this action was filed on July 14, 2006. There are four children born of the marriage. The eldest child is emancipated and a college student, the parties' second child, Patrick, is profoundly disabled and will not emancipate when he turns 18. Although he is chronologically 15 at this time, he is mentally 2 years old and it is likely he will never be emancipated; the parties' two youngest children, Tiffany and Ashley remain minors (Ashley, born May 6, 1994 and Tiffany, born September 26, 1995).
4. The parties have agreed that they shall have shared parental responsibility of and for their minor children.
5. The parties have agreed that the Petitioner/Wife shall be the primary residential parent of and for all of the parties' minor children and for Patrick for the remainder of his life.
6. The parties have agreed that the Respondent/Husband shall be entitled to frequent and liberal visitation/time sharing with the minor children as long as such is coordinated in advance with the Petitioner/Wife. If the parties are unable to agree upon a set schedule, the Court shall reserve jurisdiction to order such a schedule.

7. As and for equitable distribution, the parties' assets shall be equitably divided as follows:

- The wife shall retain all of the right, title and interest in the marital home located in Port St. Lucie together with its contents. Within 30 days of the execution of this judgment, the Husband shall execute a quit claim deed conveying all of his right, title and interest in the Port St. Lucie home to the Wife.
- The Husband shall be receive and retain to the land located in Ocala, Florida. Within 30 days of the execution of this final judgment, the Wife shall execute a quit claim deed conveying all of her right, title and interest in this land to the Husband.
- The Wife shall retain all ownership of and to the marital businesses known as Lifestyle Living I and Lifestyle Living II together with any assets which are owned by either company in their name, either real or personal.
- The husband shall retain his Nissan Titan vehicle and shall be solely responsible for all debt and liability associated therewith and shall indemnify and hold the Wife harmless from any liability therefore.
- The Wife shall retain her Toyota Rav 4 and her leased Jaguar vehicles and she shall be solely responsible for all debts and liabilities associated with these vehicles and shall indemnify and hold the Husband harmless from any liability therefore.

- The Wife obtained a 2007 truck in her name during this litigation, however, this is her father's vehicle and her father is paying all of the debt associated therewith.
- The Husband shall retain all of his interest in a home that he jointly owns with Andrice Youance, free from any claim or demand of the Wife.
- The Wife shall retain her 401K free from any claim or demand of the Husband.
- Based upon this equitable distribution there would be an equalization payment of approximately $4,950 owing from the Wife to the Husband. This equalization payment shall be satisfied by an abatement (or nonpayment) of child support for a period of ten months through and including June 2008 as set forth below.

8. The Husband shall vacate the marital residence no later than November 29, 2007 and thereafter, the Wife and the parties' children shall have the exclusive use, possession, occupancy and ownership of the house.

9. The Wife shall be solely responsible for any and all credit card debt that presently exists as set forth below and she shall timely make all payments on such (this is an aspect of equitable distribution):

- American Express (2 accounts) total amount owing $8,900 and $9,200;
- Wachovia Visa balance owing $4,200;
- Bank of America Visa balance owing $4,600;
- Chase Visa balance owing $5,300;
- Bank of America credit line balance owing $4,400.

10. If the Husband disputes that any of the credit card debt listed in this final judgment are marital, he shall, within ten days of the entry of this final judgment, ask the Court to revisit this issue based upon documentation or statements that he has to show that any of this credit card is not marital. If the Husband fails to make such a request within ten days of the entry of this final judgment, then this issue is fully and completely resolved by this final judgment.

11. The Husband shall pay child support for the parties' three minor children in the amount of, on a temporary basis, $500 per month. This payment shall begin July 1, 2008 and continue monthly thereafter until modified by this Court. The Husband is being provided a credit of ten months of child support payments as and for his equalization payment of the equitable distribution as set forth above in paragraph 7.

12. The court affirmatively finds and orders that Patrick will not be emancipated beyond age 18 and may never be emancipated and child support shall continue, for Patrick, until further order of this Court.

13. All relief not specifically granted in this final judgment is hereby denied, including but not limited to each party's claims for support, attorneys fees and costs and other equitable distribution or special equity claims as raised in their pleadings.

14. The Wife shall be restored to her former name for all purposes, to wit: Linda Cavallo.

15. Except for the granting of this dissolution of marriage this Court shall retain jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter to enforce and modify, if appropriate, any matter contained in this final judgment so modifiable and so enforceable.

16. The Respondent/Husband's address for service purposes is: 833 North Rainbow Drive, Hollywood, FL 33021. If the Husband seeks to have this address changed for any purpose, he shall notify the Court and Petitioner/Wife's counsel in writing.
