ARTICLE VII – Manager Liability

The Operating Managers(s) of the Company, shall not be liable to the Company or its members for monetary damages for an act or omission in the Operating Manager(s) capacity as Operating Manager(s), except as provided for in Chapter 608 of the Florida Statutes. Any repeal or amendment of this Article V by the members of the company shall be prospective only and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the liability of the Operating Manager(s) of the company existing at the time of such repeal or amendment. In addition to the circumstances in which the Operating Manager(s) of this company is/are not liable as set forth in the preceding sentences, the Operating Manager(s) shall not be liable to the fullest extent permitted by any provision of the Florida Statutes hereafter enacted that further limits the liability of the Operating Manager(s) or of a director of a corporation.

ARTICLE VIII – Admission of New Members

No additional members shall be admitted to the Company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the Company as set for in these Articles, the Agreement of the Company, or Agreement Among Members, whichever is applicable but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company or become a member unless all the other members of the company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE IX – Members Rights to Continue Business:

The Company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, retirement, resignation, expulsion, or dissolution of a member or Operating Manager, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, unless the business of the Company is continued by the consent of all the remaining members or as otherwise provided for in the Operating Agreement.
