7. Procedures with Respect to the Filing or Rejection of Claims, Objections to Claims, and Resolution of Disputed Claims.

6.06. All rejection claims shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before the later of thirty (30) days after the effective date or the date of a final order approving the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease, unless required to be filed earlier by virtue of an order of the Bankruptcy Court.

6.07. Except as provided herein, the Reorganized Debtor and any other party in interest shall have thirty (30) days after the effective date to interpose objections to the allowances of the claims, interests, priority tax claims, and administration claims, unless such claim shall have been extended by order of the Bankruptcy Court. The failure of any party in interest to object to or waive any claims for the purposes of voting on this Plan shall not be deemed a waiver of the rights of any party in interest to object to or re-examine such claim in whole or in part.

Such waiver of a claim which is a Disputed Claim by virtue of being a contingent claim, or a non-liquidated claim, or a claim which is a right to payment arising from a right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance shall have thirty (30) days from the effective date, unless, within such period, such time shall have been extended by order of the Bankruptcy Court, to request the Bankruptcy Court to postpone such claim for purpose of allowing payment to be made at the Bankruptcy Court in the event the holder of such a claim fails to request timely the Bankruptcy Court to do so against the claim, such claim shall be dismissed automatically, without any action by any party in interest, and shall be deemed to have been so disallowed by the entry of a final order of the Bankruptcy Court.

6.10. (a) In the event of the allowance of a Disputed Claim or other claim not then allowed which is allowed either would be entitled to priority by virtue of § 501(a)(1)-(11) of the Bankruptcy Code or would be a claim of Class VI, or when a pending claim is allowed, or a claim entitled to priority by virtue of § 501(a)(1)-(11) of the Bankruptcy Code or belonging in Class VII is allowed because no objection was interposed within the applicable period of limitation fixed by Paragraph 6.03 of this Plan or by the Bankruptcy Court, (b) the amount of such claim shall be paid in accordance with Paragraph 6.07(b) (c), or (d) as applicable.

(b) In the event Reorganized Airport makes a distribution to the holders of the Allowed Claims or interests of Classes III, IV, V or VI, it shall reserve from the distribution and retain in a segregated interest-bearing account a sum sufficient to make an equivalent distribution to the holders of Disputed Claims or interests and other claims not then allowed which if allowed would be Claims or interests of such claimant, as appropriate. In the event such a claim or interest is allowed, on the later of twenty (20) days after such allowance or the making of an initial distribution to holders of allowed claims or interests of such classes, Reorganized Aspioneer shall distribute to the holder of such claim or interest a sum equivalent to the prior distribution(s) of such distribution, as appropriate, to holders of Allowed Claims or interests of Classes III, IV, V, or VI and thereafter the holder of such claim or interest shall be paid in the manner provided in Article V and Paragraph 6.3. In the event that such a disputed claim or interest is resolved against the holder of such claim or interest by a final order, then Reorganized Aspioneer shall reduce the amount retained for such Disputed Claims or interests by the amount allocated to that claim or interest.

C. Unclaimed Distributions.

6.11. Reorganized Aspioneer and shall be distributed in the manner provided in Article V and paragraphs 6.12 or 6.13.

6.12. A distribution of funds is unrelated, if, without limitation, the holder of a claim or interest entitled thereto does not cash a check or return a check on the check mailed to the holder at the address set forth in the debtor's schedules of creditors holding secured claims, creditors holding disallowed priority claims, or creditors holding undisputed nonpriority claims or set forth in the proof of claim filed by such holder is returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable.

D. Miscellaneous Provisions Regarding Distribution Under the Plan.

6.14. The Reorganized Debtor may, but shall not be required to, set off against any claim and the payment made pursuant to this plan in respect to such claim, claims of any notice whatsoever that Debtor may have against the holder of such claim, but neither the failure to do so nor waiver or release by the Recognized Debtor of any claim that any of them may have against the holder of such claim.

b.15. Unless the holder of a claim on Equity security advise Recognized Debtor or the attorney retained by it in writing of a change of address, all distributions or notices shall be sent to such holder at his address as stated in the Debtors' Schedules of Creditors Holding Secured Claims, Creditors Holding Unsecured Priority Claims, or Creditors Holding Unsecured Nonpriority Claims filed in the Bankruptcy Court or as stated in a properly filed Proof of Claim. Recognized Debtor and any professionals retained by it shall have no obligation to locate the holder of a claim or equity security whose distribution or notice is properly mailed but nevertheless returned.
