ARTICLE V

The period of duration of the company is perpetual.

ARTICLE VI

- (a) The company shall indemnify every manager, and the manager's heirs, executors and administrators, against expenses actually and reasonably incliffed by the manager, as well as against any amount paid upon a judgment in connection with any action, suit, or other proceeding, civil or criminal, to which the manager may be made a party by reason of having been a manager of this limited liability company.
- (b) This indemnification is being given because the manager(s) will be requested by the company to act for and on behalf of the company and for the company's benefit.
- (c) This indemnification is not exclusive of other rights to which the manager(s) may be entitled.
- (d) The manager(s) are entitled to the fullest indemnification allowed by the current law or as the law may be amended after the adoption of these articles.
 - (e) A manager shall be liable to the company for the following actions:
 - (1) Any breach of his or her duty of loyalty to the company, or to its members:
- (2) An act or omission that was taken in bad faith and which constitutes a breach of the Manager's duty to the company by an act that is grossly negligent, malicious, or intentional, as those terms are defined at law;
- (3) A transaction in which the manager benefits to the detriment of the company or its members.
- (4) An action for which the manager is liable at law and for which an indemnification is not allowed.

ARTICLE VII

The purpose or purposes for which the company is organized are to engage in any activity or business permitted under the laws of the United States and the State of Florida, as they may be amended from time to time.
