Article III—Purpose. The Company's purpose shall be as follows:

The primary purpose of the Company shall be to provide and conduct a transitional living facility in Tequesta, Florida, and/or other locations for women in furtherance or support of recovery from substance abuse. The Company shall take any action that is necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient to accomplish this objective as may be permitted for a limited liability company organized under Florida law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company shall be authorized to conduct other businesses and to invest in other companies or other legal entities anywhere in the world.

In effectuating its objective, the Company to the extent permissible under Florida law shall serve to facilitate or provide for, among other things, the protection of its assets against creditors of any Member of the Company, and the deterrence and expeditious resolution of any disputes or actions among Members with respect to the Company's assets. The Company's assets are vital to the success of its business activity and are necessary for it to produce income and profit for the benefit of all Members.

The Company may engage in any other business or investment activity determined necessary or advisable by the Members, provided that such action is not in violation of the laws of the United States, the State of Florida, or any other State within the United States.

Article IV—Management. The Company shall be a manger-managed limited liability company. The Company's Managers are as follows:

Laura D. Kiley; and Colin J. Kiley.

The Company may assign additional titles and offices to its Managers.

Article V—Registered Agent. The Company's Registered Agent shall be as follows:

William M. Shaheen
3351 N.W. 2nd Avenue
Boca Raton, Florida 33431.

Article VI—Date and Adoption of the Amendment. The Members of the Company adopted these Articles of Amendment on March 1, 2008. The Members of the Company adopted these Articles of Amendment by unanimous vote and otherwise in a manner valid and sufficient for approval under the Company's organizational documents.
