SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned person, acting as the member of ONE 11, LLC (the "Company") under the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, Chapter 608, Florida Statutes, adopts the following Articles of Organization:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this limited liability company is ONE 11, LLC, and its mailing address is 204 37th Ave. N., #232, St. Petersburg, FL 33704-1416 and its street address is 7210 18 St. NE, St. Petersburg, FL 33702, but it shall have the power and authority to establish branch offices at other locations, as the members may designate.

ARTICLE II.

The existence of the Company will commence on filing and shall exist in a manner provided by law, or as provided in the regulations adopted by the members.

ARTICLE III.

This limited liability company is created both for any lawful purpose (except that special statutes for the regulation and control of specific types of businesses shall control when in conflict herewith) and for the purpose of owning, maintaining and possessing commercial real property within the State of Florida and the United States of America for the benefit of its members and such other related business as may be agreed on by its members.

ARTICLE IV.

The street address of the initial registered office of the Company is 7210 18 St. NE St. Petersburg, FL 33702 and the name of the Company's initial registered agent at that address is Robert Barlow.

ARTICLES V.

The initial members of the limited liability company shall have the right to admit additional members upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Said members must wish to associate themselves with the limited liability company for the business purposes stated; and

2. Said members must pay an initial capital contribution in an amount to be established by the existing members.

3. The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member of this limited liability company, or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company shall not result in the dissolution of this limited liability company. Rather, the remaining members of the limited liability company shall have the right to continue the business of the limited liability company notwithstanding the foregoing events.

4. No person or entity can become a member of the limited liability company without the consent of all the members. If an existing member transfers his or her interest in the limited liability company without the unanimous consent of all members, the transfer is void ad initio. As more particularly set forth in the Operating Agreement, if any member desires to sell his interest in the Company, he ("Offering Member") shall first offer that interest to the other Members ("Offeree Member"). If the Offerree Member(s) refuse to buy all or any portion of the membership interest to be sold by the Offering Member and refuse to allow the person ("New Member") desiring to purchase the interest of the Offering Member to become a member of the Company, then the Offerree Members must likewise sell their shares in the Limited Liability Company to the New Member on the same terms as originally proposed to the Offering Member..

ARTICLE VI.

The management of the limited liability company shall be vested in two managers who shall be elected annually by the members in a manner prescribed by and provided for in the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company. The managers shall also hold the offices and shall have the responsibilities accorded to them by the members and as set out in the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company. The name and address of the initial managers who shall serve as managers until the first annual meeting of the members or until their successors are elected and qualified are Robert Barlow and Donald Schmidt.

The management of the limited liability company shall be vested in the members. The names and addresses of the members are:

1. Donald J. Schmidt and Patricia P. Schmidt, husband and wife
7200 18th St. NE
St. Petersburg, FL 33702-4757

2. Robert Barlow and Patricia Barlow, husband and wife
7210 18th St. NE
St. Petersburg Florida 33702

ARTICLE VII.

The power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the Operating Agreement (sometimes hereinafter referred to as the "Regulations") of this limited liability company shall be vested in the managers of the company. Regulations adopted by the managers may be repealed or altered and new regulations may be adopted by a majority vote of the members. The members may prescribe in any Regulations made by them that such Regulations may not be altered, amended or repealed by the managers. The Regulations may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of this limited liability company not inconsistent with the law or the Articles of Organization.

ARTICLE VIII.

A member may withdraw from the limited liability company upon not less than a thirty (30) day prior written notice to each non-withdrawing member at his or its address as set forth in the records of the limited liability company that are required to be kept pursuant to Florida law.

ARTICLE IX.

1. The limited liability company shall indemnify any individual or entity made a party to a proceeding because he, she or it was a member of the limited liability company against liability incurred in the proceedings if: (a) he, she or it conducted himself, herself or itself in good faith; (b) he, she or it reasonably believed that his, her or its conduct was in or at least opposed to the limited liability company's best interest; and (c) in the event of any criminal proceeding, he, she or it had no reasonable cause to believe that his, her or its conduct was unlawful.

2. The limited liability company shall pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by any of its members who is a party to a proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding if: (a) the individual or entity furnishes the limited liability company a written affirmation of his, her or its good faith belief that it has met the standard of good conduct described herein; (b) the individual or entity furnishes the limited liability company written undertaking executed personally or on his, her or its behalf to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he, she or it did not meet the standard of conduct; and (c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the law. The undertaking required by this paragraph shall be an unlimited general obligation but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. The indemnification in advance of expenses authorized herein shall not be exclusive to any other rights to which any member may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or otherwise. The Articles of Organization shall not be interpreted to limit in any manner the indemnification or right to advancement for expenses to an individual or entity who would otherwise be entitled thereto. These Articles of Organization shall be interpreted as mandating indemnification and advancement of expenses to the extent permitted by law. In addition to the foregoing, the limited liability company shall indemnify and save the organizers harmless in all acts taken by them as organizers of the limited liability company and shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by or imposed upon them as a result of the same including compensation based upon the usual charges for expenditures required of them in pursuit of the defense against any liability arising on account of acting as organizers or on account of enforcing the indemnification rights hereunder and the limited liability company releases them from all liability for any such act as organizers not involving willful or grossly negligent misconduct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, for the purpose of forming a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Florida, the undersigned executed these Articles of Organization on this the 3rd day of August, 2004.
