ARTICLE V – Operating Agreement

Painting Plus LLC herein is referred to as the company. Members of the company agree to the following: Members shall contribute to the operation of the company. Members shall benefit from the operation of the company. Members shall not transfer any part of their interest without prior consent of all other members. A member shall be considered removed from the company for inability to perform duties, retirement, illness or any other reason, which limits ability to contribute to the operation of the company. Removal of a member will be cause for termination of the legal existence of the company. Members may amend the articles of organization by agreement for the effective operation of the company.
