To whom it may concern

We apologize immensely for all the delays to file our LLC annual report. We have just survived a terrible year, and I'm sure you heard plenty of horror stories about starting a business. We cannot afford an accountant, or for this purpose a clerk that would take care of the paperwork. All our efforts are geared on making money to first receive a salary, (which has not happen yet and the beast ate all of our savings). But we do not give up, and count on the patience and kindness of our institutions to understand the hardships of entrepreneurship.

Thank you very much once again, and please let us know if there is anything also we need to do.

Murilo Ferreira.
