To whom it may concern,

I have filed Resignation of Member/Managing Member/Manager for a limited liability company on August 15, 2006. I have not heard from the agency nor have seen a change of on the website removing our name. I have enclosed a photocopy of the envelope that reflects the post office date stamp as proof of the date of filing.

Enclosed I have once again filled out proper documentation and sent a new check for processing. I have placed a stop payment on previous check; if eventually received please do not cash check.

I request that you grant my request and date my resignation effective the date I originally sent the documents that I have proved was mailed out back then.

To greater success,

Tommy Barraza
