DOCUMENT NUMBER: L04554

The Taxpayer has requested that I write you concerning the Annual Report due as of May 1, 2002 for the corporation referred to above. Since the Annual Report was mailed from my South Florida office, it appears that the original mailing and the taxpayer check has been destroyed by a postal worker. I have attached a letter from the postal service regarding the handling of the mail from my office.

It appears the the taxpayer's original check and Annual Report has been destroyed and we are at this time refiling.

We respectfully ask that you consider this filing as being timely and that you consider the corporation as being active and in good standing at this time.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Spahn
