(d) In general, to have and exercise all powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon professional service corporations, and to do any and all things hereinabove set forth to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

ARTICLE V - Management

The professional limited liability company shall be managed by its initial member.

ARTICLE VI - Membership Units

The total number of membership units authorized to be issued by the professional limited liability company shall be 10,000 units, par value $.01. Each of the said units shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote at any meeting of the members. All or any part of said units may be paid for in cash, in property, or in labor or services at a fair valuation to be fixed by the managers of the professional limited liability company at a meeting called for such purposes. All membership units then issued shall be paid for and shall be nonassessable.

ARTICLE VII - Ownership

The initial member, namely James P. Hines, Jr., shall be the sole owner of the professional limited liability company, unless one or more additional members are admitted.

ARTICLE VIII - Admission of Additional Members

Additional members may be admitted pursuant to the consent of the initial member. However, no individual may be admitted as a member unless such individual is duly licensed and otherwise legally authorized to render legal services as an attorney at law, and no entity may be admitted as a member unless such entity is a professional service corporation or a professional limited liability company that is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render legal services through one or more duly licensed attorneys at law.

ARTICLE IX - Right of Members to Continue Business

The remaining member or members of the professional limited liability company, if any, shall be entitled to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the professional limited liability company.
