CLERK OF THE COURT
HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY, FLORIDA

Articles of Organization of Max Enterprises, LL.C.

Each member shall make additional capital contributions to the Company only on the unanimous consent of all the members, as provided in the Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE VII -- ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS

Except as set forth in the Operating Agreement, no additional members shall be admitted to the Company except with the unanimous written consent of all the members of the Company and on such terms and conditions as shall be determined by all the members. A member may transfer his or her interest in the Company as set forth in the Operating Agreement of the Company, but the transferee shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company or become a member unless all the other members of the Company other than the member proposing to dispose of his or her interest approve of the proposed transfer by unanimous written consent.

ARTICLE VIII -- TERMINATION OF EXISTENCE

The Company shall be dissolved on the death, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or manager, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, unless the business of the Company is continued by the consent of all the remaining members, provided there are at least two remaining members.

ARTICLE IX -- MANAGEMENT

The Company shall be managed by managers in accordance with the Operating Agreement adopted by the members for the management of the business and affairs of the Company. This Operating Agreement may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Company not inconsistent with law or these Articles of Organization.
