SECOND: The following amendment(s) to the Articles of Organization was/were adopted by the limited liability company:

ARTICLE VII - SALE OF MEMBER INTEREST UPON DEATH

Upon the death of any Member of the company, the personal representative or devisee(s) of the decedent Member shall sell the decedent Member's interest in and to any and all real or personal property acquired by decedent Member through and as an asset of the company and owned by the decedent Member at time of death equally to the surviving Members or its designee of the company, which sales price shall be the fair market value at the time of decedent Member's death. The fair market value shall be determined by an appraiser mutually agreed upon by all parties within thirty (30) days after the decedent's Member's death. The sale shall close within thirty (30) days following the determination of the fair market value of decedent's Member's interest; provided, however, that prior to such closing the Members or its designee may investigate title to the real property and if any title defects are discovered, the closing shall be deferred for a period of up to sixty (60) days in order to enable the surviving Members or its designee to cure any title defects, and the decedent Member's personal representative or devisee(s) shall cooperate with the surviving Members or its designee with respect to the curing of such defects. The decedent's Member's interest shall be paid in cash or by cashier's check at the closing unless the parties otherwise agree to the contrary, and all costs of the closing including documentary stamps and recording fees shall be paid by the surviving Members. The decedent Member's proportionate share of real estate taxes and assessments shall be paid by decedent's Member's personal representative or devisee(s), which shall be appropriately prorated as of the date of closing.
