Attention: ANNUAL REPORTS SECTION

Dear Sir or Madam:

Our company moved at the end of last year to the below listed address. During the first few months of the year, we were undergoing renovation of the new space, and then setting up the new files, furniture, etc. However, the confusion of the above notwithstanding, I filed very promptly on the four entities in which I am either an officer or a managing member, as follows:

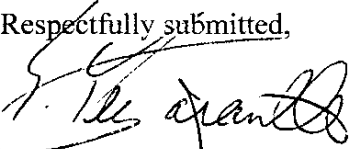

Due Diligence Reports, LLC
Capital Interfunding, Inc.
Jet Aero Holdings, Inc.
Jet Aerospares, LLC

In late February, I received four identical envelopes from the Florida Department of State in our post office box. I opened the first two and found that they contained Certificates of Status dated February 22, 2006. (See copies of all letters attached) I then proceeded to place all four envelopes in a "TO BE FILED" box. I have today, just opened the remaining two letters. Unfortunately, one of the two unopened envelopes contained the letter, dated February 22, 2006, concerning Due Diligence Reports, LLC (Ref. No. L05000033169). It stated that the FEI number in Block 4 had not been filled in, and requested that it be filled in and returned within 30 days.

This was an error on my part to have not opened all of the envelopes upon receipt. I had an FEI number issued by the IRS, 36-4571892 on April 13, 2005. (See attached IRS letter)

Accordingly, I am submitting the requested information herewith. If I owe additional fees, due to my error, please let me know.

Respectfully submitted,

E. Terry Jaramillo
