ARTICLE IV.
PURPOSES AND GENERAL POWERS

The purpose of this limited liability company shall be to engage in the practice of medicine as a limited liability company organized under the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, except that special statutes for the regulation and control of the practice of medicine shall control when in conflict therewith. This limited liability company shall have all of the powers enumerated in the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, as the same now exists and as hereafter amended, and all such other powers as are permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE V.
MANAGEMENT

This limited liability company shall be a manager-managed limited liability company, managed by a manager chosen by its member(s) in accordance with the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company.

The initial manager(s) of the limited liability company shall be the following:

ARTICLE IX.
INDEMNIFICATION

In addition to any rights and duties under applicable law, the limited liability company shall indemnify and hold harmless all of its members, officers, employees and agents, and former members, officers, employees and agents from and against all liabilities and obligations, including attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with any actions taken or failed to be taken by said members, officers, employees and agents in their capacity as such except for any action specifically exempted from indemnification under the terms of Section 608.4229, Florida Statutes, as it may be amended from time to time.

This Article may be amended from time to time in the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company by the members of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE X.
CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

No contract or other transaction between this limited liability company and any other business entity, and no act of this limited liability company, shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the members of this limited liability company are pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, or are the members, directors or officers of, such other business entity. Any member individually, or any firm of which any member may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of this limited liability company, provided that the fact that he or she or such firm is so interested shall be disclosed or shall have been known to the members or a majority thereof, and any member of this limited liability company who is also a member, director or an officer of such other business entity, or who is so interested, may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the members of this limited liability company that shall authorize any such contract or transaction with like force and effect as if he or she were not such a member, director or officer of such other business entity, or not so interested.

Any conflict between this Article and Section 608.4226, Florida Statutes, as it may be amended from time to time, shall be resolved by reference to and in favor of the controlling case law attached to such statute.

This Article may be amended from time to time in the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company by the members of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE XI.
LIMITED LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

Except as allowed by Sections 608.4227 and 608.4228, Florida Statutes, as they may be amended from time to time, the private property of the members shall not be subject to payment of the limited liability company's debts to any extent.

This Article may be amended from time to time in the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company by the members of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE XII.
AMENDMENT

This limited liability company reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Organization, or any amendment hereto, and any right conferred upon the members is subject to this reservation.
