ARTICLE 10 - INDEMNIFICATIONSECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The Company shall indemnify a director or member of the Company who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or member was a party because the director or member is or was a director or member of the Company against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the director or member in connection with the proceeding. The Company may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director, member, employee or agent of the Company against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the board of directors, that indemnification of the director, member, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the director, member, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the board of directors. The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for directors, members, employees and agents of the Company shall apply when such persons are serving at the Company's request while a director, member, employee or agent of the Company, as the case may be, as a director, member, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, as well as in their official capacity with the Company. The Company also may pay for or reimburse the reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by a director, member, employee or agent of the Company who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding. The Company also may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual arising from the individual's status as a director, member, employee or agent of the Company, whether or not the Company would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under the law. All reference in these Articles of Organization are deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in these Articles of Organization shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of attorney fees and expenses to any person who is or was a director, member, employee or agent of the Company or the ability of the Company otherwise to indemnify or advance expenses to any such person by contract or in any other manner. If any word, clause or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of the attorney fees or expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected.
