Dear HARMONEY LLC,

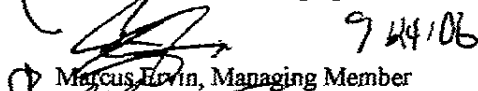

Harmoney LLC has given me the opportunity to participate in its many business ventures like Honey Girls, Signature and SheShe Essentials. However, after one year of the company being in business we have all decided collectively to dissolve the company so each member can pursue their individual goals. The company did not generate an operating agreement between each member so the remaining property and assets have been distributed among its members in accordance with their respective rights and interests. The company is no longer responsible for any balances or debt owed on the equipment and is no longer liable for any concepts, ideas or products generated under the company's supervision.

The Wachovia bank account currently has a balance of $78.80. This will go towards $115.00 due for quarterly taxes and $30.00 to dissolve the company.

The registered agent, Aleris Ervin for at least 7 years for business legality purposes, will keep all financial and business documents. The company taxes for 2006 will be filed in 2007 by Aleris Ervin and will provide each managing member a copy of his or her 2006 schedule k-1 (form 1120 S) Shareholder's Share of Income.

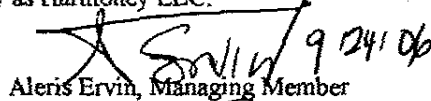

It's been a pleasure to work with such a great company as Harmoney LLC.
