purpose and intent that the company, shall save its members and managers harmless from any action taken by them in its behalf.

ARTICLE XI CONFLICT OF INTEREST

1. No contract or other transaction between a limited liability company and one or more of its members, managers or managing members or any other limited liability company, corporation, firm, association, or entity in which one or more of its members, managers, or managing members are interested shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest, because such members, managers or managing members are present at the meeting of the members, managers, or managing members or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction, or because of their votes are counted for such purposes, if:
 - A. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the managers or managing members or committee which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested members, managers, or managing members.
 - B. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the members entitled to vote and they authorize approve, or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or
 - C. The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the limited liability company at the time it is authorized by the managers, managing members, a committee, or the members.
2. For purposes of paragraph 1(A) only, a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the managers or managing members or of the committee, who have no relationship or interest in the transaction described in subsection 1, but a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this member limited liability company. If a majority of the managers or managing members who have no such relationship or interest in the transaction vote or authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by a manager or managing member with such relationship or interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under paragraph 1 (A) if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection, but such presence or vote of those managers or managing members may be counted
