To Whom It May Concern:

During our first filing, we were notified that we completed the incorrect forms and were sent the attached forms instead. Our last day of operation was December 31, 2010. We indicated that date on our tax return and noted our 2010 tax return as the final business return.

The dissolution paperwork is signed by Walter L. Davis, the manager and majority interest holder in the company. The other member no longer lives in the United States. We have resolved all business affairs related to the business. However, we are maintaining our mailing address long enough to receive our final certificate of status.

You are still in possession of our check in the amount of $43.75 from the first filing attempt, so we are not including another check. The price appears to be lower than we originally paid so we should receive a refund of $13.75. Please contact me at my direct number (850-443-8269) if there are any questions related to the dissolution of this business. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

For Capital City Property Management,

Walter L. Davis
Manager
