RE: Estate Logic, LLC documents of formation

Dear Department of Corporations:

This company's establishment is for the primary purpose of community development by empowering families and individuals toward home ownership through educational, financial, and other resources. This company intends to promote community development by means of several lines of businesses including: (1) multifamily housing acquisitions, developments, and rentals (2) single-family housing acquisitions, developments, and sales, and (3) home inspections. In the future, other lines of business may or may not be implemented.

Using a real estate "one-stop shop" strategy, this company intends to promote and assist consumers in realizing home ownership using a variety of its lines of businesses. First, the multifamily housing business line expects to provide affordable rental housing, and develop and implement a number of programs to assist families and individuals in converting from tenancy to home ownership. Secondly, with single-family housing investments, this company hopes to acquire single-family homes at discounted prices, develop them and offer its tenants first choice at obtaining these homes through home ownership assistance programs. Finally, this company anticipates promoting community development by offering quality home inspections to both general consumers and company-assisted homeowners.

Respectfully,

Vince E. Davis
Chief Executive Manager
