ARTICLE V —Purpose; Powers:

The Limited Liability Company is organized for the purpose of the conduct of any and all lawful business for which a limited liability company may be organized under the Florida Limited

Liability Company Act, Chapter 608, Florida Statutes, and may do and perform any and all acts and deeds lawful to be done and performed by a limited liability company under said law, all within and without the United States of America. Without limiting the foregoing, the limited liability company is organized for the purpose of owning, operating, managing, leasing, selling, repairing, replacing, constructing, improving and financing, on a secured and unsecured basis, real and personal property of every kind, nature and description, including general and limited partnership interests and membership interests in limited liability companies and for the purpose of manufacturing, fabricating, selling, installing and otherwise trading and dealing with hurricane shutters, panels, screens, aluminum enclosures, railings and related products.

The Limited Liability Company shall have the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to conduct its business and affairs, including, without limitation, all powers now and hereafter authorized under the laws of the United States and the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VI — Admission of Additional Members

Additional members may be admitted to the Limited Liability Company only with the consent in writing of all members and such admission shall be upon such terms and conditions as shall be established in writing by said members.

ARTICLE VII - MEMBERS' RIGHTS TO CONTINUE BUSINESS ON TERMINATION OF MEMBER

Upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the membership of a member in the Limited Liability Company, the Limited Liability Company shall be dissolved unless the owners and holders of a majority, in dollar amount, of the capital accounts of the Limited Liability Company, excluding the capital account of the terminated member, consent either in writing or by vote at a meeting of the members to continue the business of the Limited Liability Company.

ARTICLE VIII – EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS AND DOCUMENTS
