The limited liability company has only one member.

John S. Trout
803 SW 18th Court
Pensacola, FL 32514

ARTICLE V

PURPOSE

The limited liability company's purpose is to engage in any lawful business including, but not limited to, providing human resource consulting services; provided however, that such services shall be rendered only through members, employees, or agents of the limited liability company; to invest the funds of this limited liability company in real estate, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investment, and to own real and personal property necessary for the rendering of those services which a human resource consulting business may render; and to do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attaining of any of the objectives or the furtherance of any of the purposes enumerated in these Articles or any amendment thereto, necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the limited liability company, and in general, either alone or in association with other limited liability companies, corporations, firms, or individuals, carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or the attainment of the objectives or the furtherance of such purposes or objectives of this limited liability company, and to carry on any other business in connection with any of the aforesaid purposes for which a Limited liability company may be formed under the provisions of the laws of the Florida Statutes. The limited liability company's purposes and powers may be carried out in any other State in which the limited liability company may qualify to do business.

ARTICLE VI

DURATION

The duration of the limited liability company shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE VII

The private property of the limited liability company members shall not be liable for any debts, liabilities, or obligations of the limited liability company. The limited liability company shall reimburse the members for any expenses incurred on behalf of the limited liability company.

This limited liability company shall have the following power:

- a) To conduct those activities outlined in Article V.
- b) To borrow money without limitation as the amount of indebtedness.
- c) To buy, lease, hold and exercise all privileges of ownership, over such real or personal property as may be necessary or convenient for the conducting and operating of the business.
- d) To draw, make, accept, endorse, guarantee, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, drafts, warrants, certificates, and all kinds of obligations and negotiable or transferable instruments for any purpose to further the objectives for which the limited liability company is formed. Also, to give a lien on any of the limited liability company's property as security for any of the obligations listed above.
- e) To acquire, own and develop any interest in patents, trademarks, and copyrights connected with incidental to the business of the limited liability company.
- f) To do and perform all acts which are lawful and which are calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the interest of this limited liability company or enhance its value; it being understood, however, and expressly provided, that the foregoing enumeration of specific powers may not be held to limit in any manner the general powers of the limited liability company; and this limited liability company, in addition to those set out above, is given all powers granted to it by the laws of the Florida Statutes.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Organization and hereby swears that he has read the foregoing Articles and the statements therein are true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief.
