ARTICLE VI

Management. The Company is to be managed by its Members.

ARTICLE VII

Admission of New Members. The Members of the Company have the right to admit new members. Additional members may be admitted only on the majority consent and approval of the Members of the Company, and the existing Members shall determine the amount and nature of contributions to be made by new members at the time the new members are admitted.

ARTICLE VIII

Continuation of Business. The remaining members of the Company have the right to continue the business of the Company on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company. The business of the Company may be continued only on the written consent of a majority of the remaining members.

ARTICLE IX

Amendment of Articles. These Articles of Organization shall be amended as follows: every proposed amendment to these Articles of Organization shall require the approval of a majority of the Members at a Members' meeting duly called and held; alternatively, a majority of the Members may sign a written statement adopting the proposed Amendment to these Articles of Organization.

ARTICLE X

Operating Agreement. The Operating Agreement of the Company shall be made, altered or rescinded by a majority vote of the Members of the Company at a meeting of the Members; alternatively, all of the Members may sign a written statement adopting the proposed Operating Agreement or changes thereto.

ARTICLE XI

Preemptive Rights. The Members of the Company shall have preemptive rights to purchase, at prices, terms and conditions that shall be fixed by the Members, such membership interests as may be issued for money, or any property or services from time to time, in addition to the present memberships. The preemptive right of any Member is determined by the ratio of the membership interest held by a Member to all membership interests currently outstanding.
