6. The limited liability company will be organized to engage in any lawful act or activity for which Limited Liability Companies may be organized under the laws of the State of Florida, provided that the LLC is not formed to engage in any lawful act or activity requiring the consent or approval of any state official, department, board, agency, or other body without such consent or approval first being obtained, including but not limited to:

a) - Invest, gather or subscribe the necessary capital to promote, establish or develop enterprises and business.

b) - To subscribe or promote subscription, buy, possess, hold, acquire by any other means and sell, negotiate, guarantee, assign, exchange and transfer by any other means, capital shares, credits, obligations, securities, debentures, certificates of partnership and any other title or document of any private, public or semi-public corporation or juridical person and while being owner of same, possess and exercise all the corresponding rights and privileges.

c) - To execute all kinds of contracts, for itself or others and specially trust contracts and for the administration of stocks, credits, obligations, securities, debentures, certificates of partnership and any other title or document of any corporation or juridical persons.

d) - To purchase or sell, charter, sail or operate ships and vessels, as well as to execute all kinds of marine contracts.

6. The company shall, to the fullest extent legally permissible, indemnify and hold harmless any and all persons whom it shall have power to indemnify from and against any and all liabilities (including expenses) imposed upon or reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or other proceeding in which he may be involved or with which he may be threatened, or other matters referred to in or covered by said provisions both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, member or officer of the company. Such indemnification provided shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, Agreement or Resolution adopted by the shareholders entitled to vote thereon after notice.

In addition, the personal liability of all of the directors and members of the company is hereby eliminated to the fullest extent allowed by law.

The undersigned represents that he is authorized to sign this Certificate on behalf of the Members of the Limited Liability Company and that the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated therein are true.
