Article VII
Purpose And Power

The purposes of the LLC are as follows:

- (a) to provide maximum flexibility in business planning;
- (b) to provide simplicity in dealing with the tax laws and filing requirements;
- (c) to purchase, develop, and/or manage real estate;
- (d) to purchase and manage investments;
- (e) to provide for an order of succession and control of assets;.
- (f) to provide for management of business assets outside of the probate court upon a member's death;

In order to accomplish its purposes, the LLC may conduct any lawful business and investment activity permitted under the laws of the State of Florida and in any other jurisdiction in which it may have a business or investment interest.

The LLC may own, acquire, manage, develop, operate, sell, exchange, finance, refinance, and otherwise deal in any manner with real estate, personal property, and any other type of business as the Members may from time to time deem to be in the best interest of the LLC.

The LLC may engage in any other activities which are related or incidental to the foregoing purposes.

Article IX
Indemnification

The Company shall indemnify any Member and/or Manager who is or was a party, or who is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including all appeals, by reason of the fact that such Member and/or Manager is or was a Member or employee of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, trustee, officer or employee of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any and all expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, decrees, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement, which were actually and reasonably incurred by such Member and/or Manager in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. The Company shall not indemnify any Member and/or Manager in the event of (i) a breach of such Member and/or Manager's duty of loyalty to the Company or its Members, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, (iii) a transaction from which such Member and/or Manager derived an improper personal benefit, or (iv) acts or omissions for which indemnification is prohibited under the Florida Limited Liability Company Act, or (v) judgments, penalties, fines, and settlements arising from any proceeding by or in the right of the Company, or against expenses in any such case where such Member and/or Manager shall be adjudged liable to the Company. Any indemnification provided for in this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Member and/or Manager is proper in the circumstances because such Member and/or Manager had met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Article. Such determination shall be made: (i) by the Members by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Members who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding; or (ii) by special legal counsel, selected by the Members by vote as set forth in (i) above.

The indemnification provided in this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person indemnified may be entitled under any agreement, vote of Members, or otherwise, both as to action in the official capacity of such person and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Manager or a Member and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

Article X
Real Estate Documents

All conveyances and mortgages of and leases relating to real property made by the Company shall be executed by any Manager of the Company, and all releases of mortgages, liens, judgments, or other claims that are required by law to be made of record may be executed by any Manager of the Company.

Article XI
Amendment Of Articles Of Organization

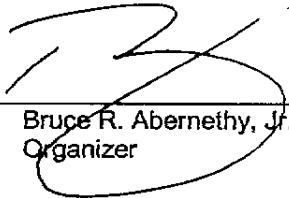

The Company reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles Of Organization in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute and all rights conferred upon Members herein are granted subject to this reservation.
