in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, unless such person breached or failed to perform his duties as an manager, member, officer, employee, or agent of this Company and such breach constitutes:

- (1) a violation of criminal law, unless the manager, member, director, officer, employee or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful;
- (2) a transaction from which the manager, member, director, officer, employee, agent derived an improper personal benefit, either directly or indirectly; or
- (3) recklessness or an act of omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard for human rights, safety, or property.

A judgment or other final adjudication against a manger, member, director, officer, employee or agent of this Company in any criminal proceeding for violation of criminal law shall estop such person from contesting the fact that his breach or failure to perform constitutes a violation of the criminal law, but such judgment of other final adjudication shall not estop such person from establishing that he has reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

This indemnification provided by this Article shall continue as to an Indemnified Person who has ceased to be a manager, member, director, or officer, or employee and shall inure to the benefit of the estate, heirs, personal representatives, beneficiaries, executors and administrators of such a person. All rights to indemnification and advances under this Article shall be deemed to be a contract between the Company and each Indemnified Person at any time while this Article is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Article or any repeal or modification of relevant provisions of the Florida Limited Liability Company Act or any other applicable laws shall not in any way diminish the rights to indemnification of such Indemnified Person or the obligation of the Company arising hereunder for claims relating to matters occurring prior to repeal or modification.
