6. The Limited Liability Company is a manager-managed Limited Liability Company. The Limited Liability Company shall be managed by the managers who are designated, appointed, or elected to act in that capacity in accordance with the Operating Agreement of the Limited Liability Company.

The persons who are designated or appointed as managers shall carry out and further the decisions and actions of the Company made under the Operating Agreement and shall be authorized to execute and deliver any and all reports, forms, instruments, documents, papers, writings, agreements, and contracts, including but not limited to deeds, bills of sale, assignments, leases, promissory notes, mortgages, and security agreements and any other type or form of document by which property or property rights of the Company are transferred or encumbered, or by which debts and obligations of the Company are created, incurred, or evidenced, that are necessary, appropriate, or beneficial to carry out or further those decisions or actions.

7. With the written unanimous consent of the members, new members may be admitted into the limited liability company upon the payment of such capital contribution and upon such terms as the members unanimously decide. In the event that new members are admitted into the limited liability company, the share of each new member in the profits and losses shall be in such proportion as may be agreed upon between all the members and the new member.
8. The remaining members of the limited liability company shall have the right to continue business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company as further set forth in the Operating Agreement of the limited liability company
7. These articles will be effective upon filing.

This the first day of January, 2006.
