with a request that you provide funds to replenish the full amount of the expense retainer. After sending to you a request for replenishment of the expense retainer, we will continue to incur expenses on your behalf so long as sufficient funds remain in the trust account to satisfy any such expenses. If the expense retainer balance is insufficient to cover expenses on your behalf, we will not incur any expenses until the retainer is replenished in full. At the completion of this matter, we will send to you an itemized statement showing all deposits and withdrawals. If at that time we are not handling other active matters for you, the remaining balance in trust will be refunded to you. If we are handling other active matters for you at that time, the remaining balance will be applied to pay expenses as they are incurred in those matters, with an itemized statement of all deposits and withdrawals being sent to you at the completion of all active matters on your behalf or at the time of a replenishment request, whichever is earlier. State law prohibits our firm and yours from earning interest on trust funds, as all such interest is used by the State Bar of Georgia to fund pro bono matters.

Master Agreement: This agreement governs the terms of handling this matter and all future immigration matters for you, such that a separate services agreement need not be executed for each matter. We will for future matters therefore simply send our flat fee invoice or hourly statements to you for payment and handling in accordance with this agreement. In each future matter you agree to provide expense trust funds in the standard amount at the outset of the matter to be placed in trust for payment of expenses on your behalf in accordance with this agreement. Your signature below indicates that you understand and agree to this arrangement and that, if signing on behalf of a corporation, you are authorized to do so. This agreement pertains to immigration services only and does not supersede or in any way affect or alter any other retainer agreement that you may with our firm have regarding other legal services.
