ARTICLE VII
LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF GOVERNORS

A governor of this Limited Liability Company shall not be personally liable to this limited liability company or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a governor, except for the liability (i) based on a breach of the governor's duty of loyalty to this Limited Liability Company or its members; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law; (iii) under Section 608 the Florida Statutes; or (iv) for any transaction from which such governor derived an improper personal benefit. If Chapter 608 of the Florida Statutes is hereafter amended to authorize the further elimination or limitation of the liability of the governors, then the liability of a governor of this Limited Liability Company, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Florida Statutes, as amended. Any repeal or modification of this Article by the members of this Limited Liability Company shall be prospective only and shall not affect any limitation on the personal liability of a governor of this Limited Liability Company existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE VIII
ACTIONS BY WRITTEN CONSENT

Any action which is required or permitted to be taken by the governors of this Limited Liability Company at a meeting and which does not require the approval of the members may be taken by written action signed by the number of governors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting at which all governors were present. However, if the action is one which must be approved by all members, such action may be taken only by written action signed by all of the governors then in office. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken by written action signed by the members who possess the voting power that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the members at which all members were present.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has set his hand this 21st day of February, 2006.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Ricardo Garcia', is written over a horizontal line.

Ricardo Garcia, Organizer
