Dear Ms. Lilliston:

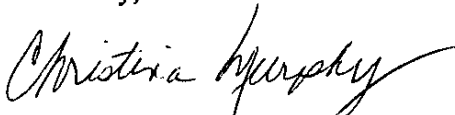

Per our telephone conversation on June 26, 2006, I am writing to explain the stop payment on check 1322.

Accidentally, I filed one application electronically and also mailed a check. Upon learning of my error, I called the number on the website and was told there was nothing they could do to stop either one or the other application. Therefore, I chose to stop payment on the check and allow the credit card charge to go through, which it did.

Please close this account but leave the other open.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Christina Murphy
