ARTICLE VI
ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

Members shall have the right to admit new members by unanimous consent. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the limited company.

A member's interest in the liability company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except with unanimous written consent of all members.

ARTICLE VII
BUSINESS CONTINUITY

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business on unanimous consent of the remaining members.

ARTICLE VIII
PROFITS AND LOSSES

The sharing of profits and losses shall be in the manner provided by law and according to duly adopted Regulations of the Company.

ARTICLE IX
POWERS OF THE COMPANY

This Company shall have all powers allowed under Florida statutes, Chapter 608, and otherwise allowed by the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America

This Company is further authorized to do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, goals, and interests of the Company.

ARTICLE X
EXERCISE OF POWERS

All limited liability company powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of this limited liability company shall be managed under the direction of, the members of this limited liability company. This Article may be amended from time to time in the regulations of the limited liability company by a unanimous vote of the limited liability company.

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION

This limited liability company shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that he she is or was a manager or a managing member of the limited liability company or is or was serving at the request of the limited liability company as a manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests or the limited liability company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgement, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the limited liability company, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

This limited liability company shall indemnify any person, who was or is a party to any proceeding by or in the right of the limited liability company to procure a judgement its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent of the limited liability company or is or was serving at the request of the limited liability company as a manager, managing member, director, officer, employee, or agent of another limited liability company, company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses and amounts paid in settlement not exceeding, in the judgment of a majority of the members, the estimated expense of litigating the proceeding to conclusion, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof. Such indemnification shall be authorized if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to , the best interests of the limited liability company, except that no indemnification shall be made under this subsection in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable unless, and only to the extent that, the court in which such proceeding was brought, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

To the extent that any manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent of a limited liability company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding referred to in this article, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he or she shall be in indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.
