We have received your document for BASIC LLC and your check(s) totaling $160.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

Limited Liability Companies are not corporations. Limited Liability Companies are unique business entities with special characteristics and attributes formed under Chapter 608, Florida Statutes. Corporations, on the other hand, are formed under Chapter 607, Florida Statutes, and possess other distinctive traits and characteristics. Consequently, limited liability company documents cannot contain any references/terms which may implicate the entity is a corporation. Please delete any references to the term "corporation" or the like from your document.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (850) 245-6984.

ARTICLE SEVEN

The following provisions are adopted for the purpose of managing the business and regulating the affairs of the Company and defining, limiting and regulating the rights, powers and duties of the Company, its officers and directors:

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred applicable law, the Board of Directors shall have power and authority:

(a) to make, alter, amend, change, add to or repeal the By-Laws of the Company;

(b) on behalf and in the name of the Company to borrow or otherwise raise funds from time to time for any lawful corporate purpose and, in connection therewith, to:

(i) authorize the issue, assumption or guaranty of notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of the Company for such funds; and

(ii) grant collateral security therefore by mortgage or pledge of all or any portion of the assets of the Company then owned or thereafter acquired; and

(c) to designate, by resolution or resolutions adopted by a majority of the whole Board of Directors, one or more committees of the Board of Directors, each committee to consist of three or more of the Directors of the Company, which committees, to the fullest extent provided in said resolutions or in the By-Laws of the Company and permitted shall have and may exercise any or all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Company; and
