ARTICLE V MEMBERS

The Company shall have at least one member and may admit additional members on the prior unanimous written agreement of the then-existing members, or as otherwise provided in the Operating Agreement of the Company.

ARTICLE VI CONTINUATION OF BUSINESS

On the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or on the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company, or upon any other event that, under the Act, would result in dissolution of the Company, the business of the Company may be continued and the Company will not be dissolved without the prior written consent of all the remaining members of the Company.

ARTICLE VII MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

The Company will be managed by one or more managers, which may or may not be members, appointed by the members in accordance with the terms of the Operating Agreement. As such, the Company will be manager-managed. The managers will be designated as the president, secretary, and treasurer of the Company, and may also be designated as vice presidents, assistant secretaries, and assistant treasurers, and shall have the authority normally associated with these positions under corporate law. The Company may also designate persons as directors under the Operating Agreement who shall act in a manner similar to the directors of a corporation. The members, at a meeting of the members held not less than annually, shall designate the managers, who may also be members, and the positions that these managers will hold.

The initial manager, who shall serve until the first annual meeting of the members or until their successors are elected and qualify, shall be William D. Meadow.
