proceeding, unless such person breached or failed to perform his/her duties as a Manager, Member, officer, director, employee or agent of the Company and such breach constitutes:

(1) a violation of criminal law, unless the Manager, Member, director, officer, employee or agent had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his/her conduct was unlawful;

(2) a transaction from which the Manager, Member, director, officer, employee or agent derived an improper personal benefit, either directly or indirectly; or

(3) recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard for human rights, safety, or property.

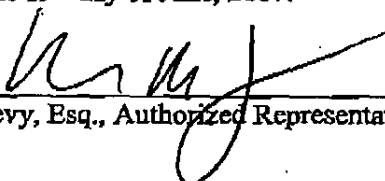

A judgment or other final adjudication against a Manager, Member, director, officer, employee or agent of this Company in any criminal proceeding for violation of criminal law shall estop such person from contesting the fact that his/her breach or failure to perform constitutes a violation of the criminal law, but such judgment or other final adjudication shall not estop such person from establishing that he/she had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that his/her conduct was unlawful.

The indemnification provided by this Article shall continue as to an Indemnified Person who has ceased to be a Manager, Member, director, officer, employee or agent only with respect to actions occurring while a Manager, Member, director, officer, employee or agent of the Company and shall inure to the benefit of the estate, heirs, personal representatives, beneficiaries, executors and administrators of such person. All rights to indemnification and advances under this Article VI shall be deemed to be a contract between the Company and each Indemnified Person at any time while this Article VI is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Article VI or any repeal or modification of relevant provisions of the Florida Limited Liability Company Act or any other applicable laws shall not in any way diminish the rights to indemnification of such Indemnified Person or the obligations of the Company arising hereunder for claims relating to matters occurring prior to the repeal or modification.

Article VIII
Amendment

The Members reserve the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Amended and Restated Articles of Organization subject to any provision set forth in the Operating Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned authorized representative of the initial Members has executed these Articles on the 19th day of June, 2007.
