I herby submit my resignation as a managing member of Secure Door Global, LLC due to the unwillingness of the other managing member to follow my advice, direction, financial plans, and business recommendations as to the transition of old to new store locations. Members total disregard of financial responsibility to pay the Florida State sales taxes, federal employer/employer payroll taxes on time, with the funds generated with in the company's daily business activities. I can no longer tolerate the lack of proper management and being employed in another state makes it all the more difficult to enforce the recommendations, solutions, advice, implementation and follow thru to ensure the continued success from the other sole managing member Sharon DeCola.

I will not be held responsible for any financial, lease; utility, insurance or debt liabilities as she continues to run the company in the manner that she sees is suitable to continue the business by her own methods, thoughts, ideas, management styles and financial responsibilities. May all the success be with her and the company!

Respectfully,
