ARTICLE VI        ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBERS AND TRANSFERABILITY OF INTERESTS

Membership in the Company shall be limited to (i) special districts created pursuant to a special act of the Florida Legislature and having the authority to own or operate one or more hospitals licensed in Florida, (ii) hospitals licensed in Florida that are owned, operated, or funded by a county or municipality, and (iii) hospitals licensed in Florida that are qualified as not-for-profit organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Board of Managers of the Company shall require any entity seeking to become a member of the Company to submit a request for membership to the Board of Managers of the Company, which may then offer membership to such entity in accordance with the Company's Operating Agreement.

No member shall be entitled to sell, transfer, assign, pledge, encumber or make any other disposition of its rights or interests as a member; provided, however, that in the event a member is merged or consolidated into another entity, or substantially all of the assets of a member are sold to another entity, or a portion of the member's operations that are insured or reinsured by the Company is sold or transferred by the member to another entity, the member may transfer its membership to the transferee entity provided that such transferee entity meets the eligibility requirements set forth in this Article VI. Any such transfer shall be in accordance with the procedure specified in the Company's Operating Agreement.
