To whom it may concern,

This is a formal request to dissolve South Pooch Diet LLC. Our business is currently at a net loss for 2008 and 2009 due to the economic recession. There are no judgments against the company and all liabilities are being paid from our personal accounts.

We do request the State not charge a $25 "tax" (filling fee) for closing a business that has already cost us so much money. I assume you have a way to not bill that and the filing fee is for normally for businesses that may change to a different type such as s-corp etc.

Since we are at a net loss of over $3000 in 2009 the enclosed check is from a personal account. We hope that you will destroy this check but understand in protest if it must be paid. Why FL would charge a business owner that is at a loss a $25 fee after all taxes due have already been paid. We would appreciate if you could dissolve the company without the excess charge.

Yours,

Terrence E Rocks
