Lynn Tolliver, Jr. /Founder

SMTT Broadcasting

Origin, By Laws & Purpose

Private & Confidential. For members only

SMTT Broadcasting was founded by Lynn Tolliver, jr., in June of 2007. Documents will show however, that the L.L.C.s were established, in August, however, email correspondence and the founding members can verify conversations about the company.

The purpose of SMTT Broadcasting is: To operate a legitimate Internet radio station, that will offer a great alternative for people all over the world. A station that will play great songs (great music) and cover problems (issues, areas of concern), primarily in the United States.

The founding members are, Synthia Hathorn, Antonio Marshall, & David Louis Tolliver. Their official positions may change over the course of the operation, but this is the founding chapter. For Lynn Tolliver, jr., in the LTD documents, are David Christopher Tolliver, and McKinley Tolliver who at the time of this document is six years old, and will not reap any benefits from this company until after he is 18 years old, or until David Christopher makes different arrangements. In the event David Christopher is not available due to illness beyond comprehension, or death, then David Louis Tolliver will decide. In the event of death of any of the immediate Tollivers, which are David Louis Tolliver, Orrin Lynn Tolliver III, David Christopher Tolliver or McKinley Emerson Tolliver, the remaining Tollivers will not gain any further control, they will only reap financial profits after expenses, but will not be held liable to any debts occurred. In the event, all of the Tollivers are not available; decisions in those matters will be determined by Synthia Hathorn and Antonio Marshall.
