Attention: Deborah Bruce,

My name is Carl Rideg. I have recently been informed by mail and by a conversation with you, that my application to form a limited liability company was rejected. I understand the reason for the rejection of the name which, as you recall, was to be CSR DESIGN.

I have filed new documents, which accompany this letter, that create a new name for the business. The new name of the company will be CSR DESIGN CONCEPTS. I trust that this new name will be acceptable.

Please don't hesitate to call if there is a problem.

Sincerely,

Carl S. Rideg (954-304-4990)

The name designated in your document is unavailable since it is the same as, or it is not distinguishable from the name of an existing entity. Section 608.406, Florida Statutes, was amended effective July 1, 2007, to require the name of a limited liability company to be distinguishable from the names of all other filings filed with the Division of Corporations, except for fictitious name registrations and general partnership registrations.

Please select a new name and make the correction in all the appropriate places. One or more words may be added to make the name distinguishable from the one presently on file. Adding of Florida or Florida to the end of the name is not acceptable. A search for name availability can be made on the Internet through the Division's records at www.sunbiz.org.

Please note the name of a limited liability company must end with the words Limited Liability Company, the abbreviation L.L.C., or the designation LLC.
