SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

ARTICLE VI
CONTINUATION OF BUSINESS; MERGER, ETC.

The remaining members of the Company may continue its business upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of the member or members in the Company as provided in the Act or the Operating Agreement of the Company. The Company may not merge or consolidate with any other entity, or convert into any other type of legal entity. Except as permitted by the various financing documents to which the Company is or may become a party, the Company shall not sell or otherwise transfer any substantial part of its assets. The Company shall not file a voluntary bankruptcy petition or take other actions to seek protection under federal or state laws related to insolvency (including consenting to or acquiescing in an involuntary petition) without the affirmative, unanimous vote of all of the members and of the manager of the Company. Whenever voting on matters as to which a vote of the membership of the Company is required, the members and manager of the Company shall consider the interests of the creditors of the Company as well as the interests of its members. No assets of the Company shall at any time be commingled with those of a member or manager of the Company, and all dealings between the Company and one or more of its members shall be conducted on an arm's-length basis.

ARTICLE VII
MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

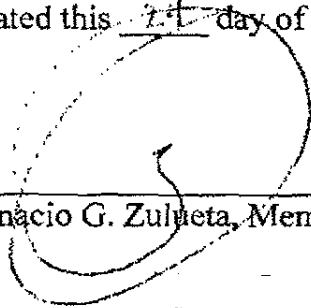

The Company will be managed by a manager selected as provided in the Operating Agreement of the Company. The initial manager of the Company is Ignacio G. Zulueta.

ARTICLE VIII
BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

The business of the Company shall be limited to the following, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Act: the sale of securities to permit the extension of mortgage financing by the Company to owners of properties on which charter schools in Florida and other states of the United States are established and maintained, the origination and management of such mortgage loans, and the temporary investment of funds in liquid securities as permitted by financing documents to which the Company is a party, and activities incidental thereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, a member of the Company has executed these Articles of Organization on behalf of the Company in accordance with the Florida Limited Liability Company Act.

Dated this 24 day of September, 2007.
