Re: Articles of Dissolution

Please be advised that the corporation was never successful in acquiring the business as intended, therefore was never actually a functional business of any kind.

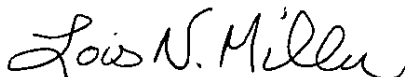

Effective immediately we, the managers and owners, are hereby declaring the business dissolved.

I originally sent this same notice back on March 19, 2009 and received no reply until I contacted your office 2 weeks ago and was informed that you never received thus correspondence by your Lee Yarbrough in internet support section. He was very helpful!

Attached please find my $25.00 check along with these Articles of Dissolution.

We have received your document for LL MILLER, LLC and your check(s) totaling $25.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

Articles of Dissolution for a Florida limited liability company must comply with section 608.445, Florida Statutes. For your convenience, we are enclosing the appropriate form and instructions.

Number three of the document must contain the date the decision to dissolve was approved or became effective. This date must be prior to the date this document was submitted for filing.

A description of the occurrence that resulted in the limited liability company's dissolution pursuant to section 608.441, Florida Statutes, must be contained in the document.

A statement that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the limited liability company have been paid or discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefore pursuant to section 608.4421, Florida Statutes, must be contained in the document.

A statement that there are no suits pending against the company in any court or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit must be contained in the document.

The document must be signed by the members having the same percentage of membership interests necessary to approve the dissolution or the revocation when filing articles of revocation of dissolution.

Please return the corrected original and one copy of your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call

(850) 245-6855.
