Dear Sirs.

Third Call Entertainment, LLC, who was founded basically at the end of 2007, never received the notification for the annual report. I never thought that we needed to file so soon. When I found that we needed to file for the annual report, I immediately went to your website to file through the internet. That day I encountered problems with your website so I wrote to Corphelp. (Attached are the emails from and to them).

Knowing that there is a time limit to submit, I felt under such a stress that I continue trying until I processed the report. In my confusion I did not realize that there was a place where I have the option to let you know that I did not receive the notification. I just processed the filing so I can comply with the State. I am very responsible person and it is very important for me to be in compliance with the State.

When I finally received a reply from Corphelp, I explained them that by mistake I finished the process and paid an amount that should have not been paid. In their reply they provided an address where I can send a letter requesting a refund of the late fee.

I respectfully would like to request that you consider my petition to waive the late fee. We are a new company and I can assure you that this will not happen again.

Thank you and please let us know.

Sincerely,

Aurora R. Lugo
