NO. 2365 P. 6

FOURTH:

A. The manner and basis of converting the interests, shares, obligations or other securities of each merged party into the interests, shares, obligations or others securities of the survivor, in whole or in part, into cash or other property is as follows:

Since all of the ownership interests of the Merging Company are currently owned in the same proportion as the ownership interests of the Surviving Company, no additional ownership interests need be issued by the Surviving Company to reflect the ownership interest of the Members after the effective date. The certificates representing the ownership interest of the Merging Company shall be surrendered and canceled on the effective date. The then outstanding ownership interests of the Surviving Company shall be unaffected by the merger and shall continue to constitute all of the ownership interest in the Surviving Company.

(Attach additional sheet if necessary)

B. The manner and basis of converting rights to acquire the interests, shares, obligations or other securities of each merged party into rights to acquire the interests, shares, obligations or others securities of the survivor, in whole or in part, into cash or other property is as follows:

Same as above.
