Jene

On October 27, 2008, Ron Gustafson contacted the Division of Corporations asking that an "erroneously filed" Voluntary Dissolution be removed from our records. We informed Mr. Gustafson that a filed document cannot be removed from our "public record database". We offered to add a note to the record with the facts he gave us.

According to Mr. Gustafson "Insight Financial Solutions, LLC" was voluntarily dissolved erroneously on 5/23/2008. Six (6) days later he filed a "Revocation of Dissolution" to return the LLC to "active" status and an "Amendment" to reflect proper ownership and list the managing member. Mr. Gustafson has asked that the Dissolution now be removed. Even though the Dissolution has been revoked and the LLC has been returned to "active" status on the records of the Division of Corporations, the dissolution document will remain in the public record as a historical document.
