ARTICLE V

The company shall have perpetual existence, unless terminated by the unanimous written agreement of all members of the company, or by the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, or upon the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member, unless the business of the company is continued by the consent of all of the remaining members, or by amendment of these Articles of Organization providing for the continuing existence of the company notwithstanding the occurrence of any of the aforementioned events.

ARTICLE VI

This company is organized for the purpose of conducting any and all lawful business permitted under the laws of the United States and of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VII

All company power shall be exercised by, or under the authority of, and the business affairs of the company shall be managed under the direction of the members of the company. This Article may be amended from time to time in the regulations of the company by a unanimous vote of its members.

ARTICLE VIII

Members shall have the right to admit new members by unanimous consent only. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the company. A member's interest in the company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except upon the unanimous written consent of members.

ARTICLE IX

The Company shall dissolve upon the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a member in the company; provided, however, that the Company may continue to exist and conduct its business upon the unanimous consent of the remaining members.

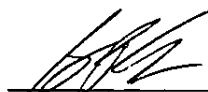

ARTICLE X

Power to adopt, alter, amend or repeal the regulations of the company shall be vested in the members adopted by the members may be repealed or altered, new regulations may be adopted, and the members may prescribe in any regulations made by them that such regulations may not be
