the Company.

ARTICLE XIII

OPERATING AGREEMENT

The manner in which the Company conducts its business and affairs, the duties and authority of its Manager, and the rights and obligations of its Members, to the extent not expressly required by and provided for in the Act, shall be set forth in the operating agreement adopted by the initial Members of the Company. Said operating agreement may from time to time be amended in accordance with the provisions contained therein.

ARTICLE XIV

INDEMNIFICATION

- A. The Company will indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent of the Company against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

1. He conducted himself in good faith;

2. He reasonably believed that his conduct was in or at least not opposed to the Company's best interest; and
 3. In the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.
- B. Indemnification will also be provided for an individual's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan if the individual reasonably believed his conduct to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan.
- C. The Company will pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent of the Company who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:
1. The individual furnishes the Company a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in the article;
 2. The individual furnishes the Company a written undertaking executed personally or on his behalf to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he did not meet the standard of conduct; and

3. A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under the law.

The undertaking required by this paragraph will be an unlimited general obligation, but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

- D. The indemnification and advance of expenses authorized in this article will not be exclusive to any other rights to which any manager, officer, organizer, employee or agent may be entitled under any agreement, vote of Members or disinterested managers or otherwise. These Articles of Organization may not be interpreted to limit in any manner the indemnification or right to advancement for expenses of an individual who would otherwise be entitled to such. These Articles of Organization may not be interpreted as mandating indemnification and advancement of expenses to the extent permitted by law.

- E. In addition to the foregoing, the Company will indemnify and save the organizers harmless for all acts taken by them as organizers of the Company,
